SHANE ROSE

Ready Set Trot Ambassador

Shane joined Forest Hills Pony Club in New South Wales at the age of five, taking part in everything, from mounted games to show Jumping and Eventing. It was Pony Club that gave Shane his first taste competitive eventing with his passion ignited following his first State Eventing Camp.

A lover of all sports, Shane is a keen golf player and an avid rugby supporter and admits that his childhood dream was to play for the Wallabies.

At the age of 21, Shane realised his first goal, representing Australia in the Young Rider Trans-Tasman competition with his horse, Mr Joe Cool. They won both the NZ Young Rider One & Three Day championships and the team won the Young Rider Trans Tamen trophy for the first time.

Shane Rose has since enjoyed countless success on the international stage and domestic circuit. His greatest sporting achievement came in 2008 when he won team silver at the Beijing Olympic Games.

Having experienced many setbacks during his time as an elite athlete, suffering personal injuries as well as his horses suffering injuries, Shane's dedication to succeed has seen him fight back each time to go on achieve great success. His passion for horses has seen him overcome many hurdles, with Shane's sights set on the World Equestrian Games in 2014 and the Olympic Games in Rio 2016.

Shane owns and operates a horse property south-west of Sydney with his wife Niki, breaking and training racehorses and eventers.
